Trabajo Práctico N°3

3° año- Cpem 49

- 1- Mirá las imágenes y el título y predécí de que va a tratarse el texto.
¿Quiénes son los protagonistas?
- 2- Lee el texto, observá las palabras transparentes y comentá brevemente que lugares visitaron y que hicieron en cada uno. Menciona alguna característica del clima en cada lugar.
 - Como Habrás observado el tiempo verbal predominante es el PASADO, ya que cuentan lo que vieron e hicieron en cada lugar.

Explicación gramatical

- I´m a teacher now. Some years ago, I was a student.
"Ahora soy profesora." "Hace algunos años, era estudiante"
- They are at home today. Last month, they were in the mountains.
"Ellas están en su casa hoy." "El mes pasado, ellas estaban en las montañas"
- "There is a house" "there was a tree"
"Hay una casa" "Había un árbol."
- "There are many cars" "there were many animals"

"Hay muchos autos"

"Había muchos animales"

¿Qué le sucede al verbo "be" en el pasado? CAMBIA SU FORMA

Entonces:

Am	Was
Is	Was
are	were

Es decir, al igual que en castellano, los verbos en el pasado cambian su forma. El verbo "be" cambia de "ser/estar" a "era/estaba" de acuerdo al sujeto. Lo mismo sucede con el verbo "Haber", cambia su forma a "Había".

3- Lee nuevamente el texto y extrae 4 oraciones en pasado, luego tradúcelas.

Jeff and Jody's travel diary

Nepal

We were in the Himalayas for a week. It was snowy and the mountains were icy. We were 5000 meters up in the snow. It was very cold but the scenery was awesome. At night there was a snow storm. The next day we were back in our warm hotel rooms again.

Laos

The Buddha park in Vientiane was amazing. There was a statue of a big, reclining Buddha. It was very impressive. It was rainy, so we entered a temple. Inside there were little windows with lots of religious images. Soon it was sunny again and we were outside.

Indonesia

Indonesia was fun. Bali's beaches were beautiful and full of tourists. The weather was perfect. It was hot and sunny. That afternoon there was a Balinese dance group on the beach. It was really interesting. Later, we were in a famous temple called Tanah Lot. It's in the sea. It was windy and hot. Bali was interesting and fun.
